Review (roughly 3 to 8 double-spaced pages) (worth 20% of the final grade). Subsequently, by the semester's end, each student should submit a revised Introduction that includes step #3, along with a new Methods section that covers step #4 (roughly 2 to 5 additional double-spaced pages) (worth 20% of the final grade).

Topics must be approved by the Instructor; and the students should consult with their advisors along the very steps outlined above for additional guidance in the particular research area selected. Thus, this project is a project specifically intended for this course, but is also meant to jump-start the student's collaborative research with their advisor. Papers should be typed with 12 pt font, double-spaced, with 1 in. margins, submitted via email to the
