

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO Getting to Know You Guide

Information
Mentee's Name
Mentor's Name

Establishing rapport is a powerful tool to help the mentee and mentor relationship start to build trust. Use the topics as conversation starters, not as a checklist; let the conversation flow naturally. Finding common ground within your conversations and being honest about achievements and mistakes are key elements for success.

What's an activity you enjoyed as a child that you wish you could do more of now?

Mentee:

--

Mentor:

--

What areas in your life make you happy?

Mentee:

--

Mentor:

--

What aspirations do you have for your career? How have they changed over the years?

Mentee:

Mentor:

What life or work accomplishment are you most proud of?

Mentee:

Mentor:

What is your preferred learning style you learn best from?

Mentee:

Mentor:

What are you hoping to get out of this mentorship relationship?

Mentee:

Mentor:

What can I do to make this a positive experience for you?

Mentee:

Mentor:

What obstacles do you see that might prevent you from being successful in this program?

Mentee:

Mentor: