

4. Should an employee need additional time for cleanup, they should request it from their respective Manager prior to the actual time needed to perform the additional cleanup.